

Hofstra Conference Lists Speakers

The annual Ethics Conference of the Hofstra University School of Law will be held over three days, Sunday –Tuesday, September 9-11. This year’s theme is “Legal Ethics: What Needs Fixing.” The keynote speaker will be Associate Justice Antonin Scalia.

Among the other speakers (and their topics) will be: Stephen Gillers, Vice Dean, NYU Law: “If Birbrower is the Problem, What is the Solution?- Fitting 21st Century Multijurisdictional Practice into 19th Century Regulatory Concepts.” David Wilkins, Professor, Harvard Law: “Ethical Infrastructures of Large Law Firms.” Nancy Rapoport, Dean, U. of Houston Law Center: “Bankruptcy Ethics: Does One Size Fit All? Actually, One Size Fits No One.” Charles Wolfram, Professor Emeritus, Cornell Law: “Expanding State Jurisdiction to Regulate Out-of-State Lawyers.”

For information about the Conference, call 516-463-5669 or 516-463-6568. Or see www.hofstra.edu/law .