

NYSBA Website Offers Articles for Lawyers

Did you know that in addition to a complete index of ethics Opinions beginning in Nov., 1964 (Opinion 01), the NYSBA Website offers articles on important current issues facing the public and the bar. One such article available on the site is:

The article discusses the “big picture” a lawyer needs to have in advising a client facing a default, including an inquiry into the client’s liquidity, its competition, and the caliber of its management.

Other articles now on the site are:

New Title Policy Forms Now Required in New York, Marvin N. Bagwell;

Alternative Dispute Resolution: a Win-Win Proposition, Irwin Kahn;

The ABC’s of Taxing Stock-Based Compensation, Jonathan M. Cerrito.

The articles are reprinted from The NYSBA Journal.
